

Patey, 75, Educator, Is Dead

Henry Curtis Patey, 75, founder and director of Hampshire Country School in Rindge, was stricken Monday evening while attending a convention in Portland, Maine, and died shortly afterward in the Maine Medical Center.

He was born in Waymart, Pa., Oct. 24, 1880, son of James C. and Amanda (Curtis) Patey and came to Rindge in 1919.

He was a clinical psychologist and a member of the N.E. Psychological Association, the Council for Exceptional Children, the Association for the Gifted, the Child Welfare League of America, and Phi Delta Kappa.

He was a fellow of the American Orthopsychiatric Association and of the American Psychological Association. He was past president of the Massachusetts Psychological Association and past president of the N.E. Chapter of the Council for Exceptional Children and a member of the International Platform Association.

Mr. Patey was elected to Wisdom Hall of Fame and was presented with the Wisdom Award of Honor. He was editor of "The Forum for Residential Therapy" and was a graduate of Linfield College in Oregon in 1925.

He received a master's degree at the University of Oregon in 1929 and served the residency for his doctorate at Columbia University from 1929 to 1936.

He received a study grant from Harvard University in 1933 and was chief psychologist at the Brooklyn Child Guidance Center from 1931 to 1935.

Mr. Patey was a former consultant to the Massachusetts State Board of Nurses and had a private practice in Wellesley, Mass., from 1934 to 1946.

In 1919, he founded Hampshire Country School.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Adelaide (Walker) Patey of Rindge, with whom he observed a 50th wedding anniversary this month; a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy L. Jennings of Brighton, Mass.; four sisters, Mrs. Mabel Haven of Wasco, Ore.; Mrs. Ruth Neelham of Seattle; Mrs. Esther Forsberg of Portland, Wash.; and Mrs. Viola Jinks of Portland, Ore.; and four granddaughters.

The funeral will be held Friday at 2 p.m. in the Cathedral of the Pines in Rindge. Rev. David L. Perry will officiate.

Funeral will be in Hillside Cemetery in Rindge. Calling hours at the Snow-Laneau Funeral Home in Winchendon, Mass., will be Thursday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Mr. Patey's memory to the Hampshire Country School.
